

there is most important to have professional interpreter. it prevent misunderstanding our communication. that mean a lot to deaf. I had this experience myself. it made me look like stupid. It was fault of not qualified interpreter.